Volunteer Requirements

AS AN EAGLE'S WINGS VOLUNTEER I AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS:

The NC law on confidentiality requires that all staff, board, and volunteers are not to discuss client information or any occurrences at Eagle's Wings. If any volunteer has a concern or issue with a member of the staff, a client or a fellow volunteer concerning any type of behavior including verbal or sexual harassment, please report the incident to the Executive Director at 975-1138 or President of the Board John Vaughn at 919-649-5167 or Chairman of the Personnel Committee, Sonny Browne at 946-9196. Your privacy will be respected.

1. I understand that as an Eagle's Wings volunteer I have no special privileges or special status. If I have a need to obtain food from Eagle's Wings I will go through the same procedures as any family. I understand I cannot do my own Intake Form or that of a relative or close friend.
2. I will abide by all established procedures. In the event of a situation not covered by policy only the Board of Directors or designated representative will make the decision.
3. If I see any misconduct or policy violation on the part of anyone connected with Eagle's Wings I will immediately report this fact in private to the Board of Directors or Executive Director. A written report may be required.
4. If an emergency arises I will call and leave a message at Eagle's Wings as soon as possible. If possible I will try to find a replacement for myself.
5. I acknowledge these volunteer requirements by my signature below. I understand I may not begin service as a volunteer until I turn this sheet in to the Executive Director or designated representative.
6. According to the agreement with The Food Bank of The Albemarle, no food may be taken from Eagle's Wings by staff, board members, or volunteers.
7. I understand that surveillance cameras were installed.
